Spanish construction firm Eurofinsa's subsidiary IBT Group is headquartered in Miami

Eurofinsa creates IBT Construction LLC to develop public works in Florida

- IBT Construction LLC has been awarded Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) certification qualifying companies to carry out public projects.

Madrid, 27 April 2017

IBT Group, a Eurofinsa Group subsidiary headquartered in Miami and a leading multinational group in the construction industry specializing in developing large-scale integral infrastructure, equipment and concession projects, has created IBT Construction LLC for the purpose of carrying out public projects in Florida.

“What we’ve done is expand our services in Florida via the know-how we’ve gained over the course of our 30 years of experience in carrying out large-scale projects worldwide”, said Daniel Toledano, the IBT Group Managing Director and CEO.

“We’re really pleased that IBT Construction LLC has been awarded FDOT certification, as this is opening up a new market brimming with prospects for our Company. From day one, we’ve always been committed to quality, so we have a team of local executives providing wide-ranging experience in carrying out infrastructure projects in Florida”, said Tony Cabrera, the Managing Director of IBT Construction LLC.

Cabrera added that since IBT Construction LLC has now been granted FDOT certification, its setting its sights on working with the agencies in charge of Florida’s highways, county governments and other stakeholders interested in developing infrastructure projects.
